There was nearly an all day's session of the superior court here on Friday on the short calendar day, there being many motions on the list and two divorce cases, at the conclusion of which the case of Marion Morse vs. S. A. Brown was heard.

The annual calling of the docket took place at the opening of court.

Norwich Divorce Granted. A divorce was granted Emil O. Zahn from Mary A. Zahn, both of this city, on the grounds of desertion. Mr. Zahn stated that he had made his home here stated that he had made his home here twenty-six years, living opposite Greeneville. He married Mary A. Vergason Nov. 23, 1904, and to please his wife moved four times. He gave his wife all his wages, $18 a week. She did not pay the bills and objected when he took hold of the financial affairs of the family. She had him arrested, but the case was nolled upon payment of $5. Her brother lived with them and was supposed to pay $5 a week and she got that money. They have a son four years old which the wife took to Mr. Zahn's mother when the child was 18 months of age and since then she has not cared for it. They separated over three years ago. The father was given the custody of the child.

Charge was Adultery.

Charge was Adultery.

On the grounds of adultery Henry E. Sisson was given a divorce from his wife, Dora M. Sission, now of Brooklyn. They were married March 7, 1897, the wife's name being Dora W. Mitchell of Montville. She was 23 and a divorced woman at that time. He was 24. It was testified that the woman had committed adultery in New London. The husband had acted as a detective and followed his wife and a man who proved to be a soldier from Fort Trumbull. He followed them into a house, but the man escaped from the window and jumped into the alleyway. Others testified in his behalf. Both parties were natives of Montville.

No Cases Assigned. Charge was Adultery. No Cases Assigned.

No cases Assigned.

No cases were assigned for next week, as none of the attorneys present stated that their actions were ready, although a number are on the trial list. On Tuesday, to which time the criminal superior court was adjourned, there will be a number of matters cleared up and it is probable that the criminal side will then adjourn without date.

Arguments in Morse Case. In the afternoon there were the arguments in the case of Marion A. Morse vs. Sidney A. Brown, sheriff of New London county, this being the matter in which habeas corpus proceedings were instituted this week, Marion Morse claiming that her sentence to jail for keeping a house reputed to be a house of ill fame was not right. Attorneys Comstock and Whittlessey made the arguments and Judge In the case of Rathbun vs. Rathbun the time for a more specific statement was extended one week.
